

Running head: TITLE OF THE PAPER

Running head is a shortened version of the paper's full title. It cannot exceed 50 characters, including spaces and punctuation (as a rule, 5 words maximum). It should be in capital letters, flush left. On the title page the running head should include the words "Running head" followed by a colon (:)

1

page numbers should be flush right

Title of the Paper

Name

Institutional Affiliation

Only these three pieces of information should be present on the title page

text text

text text text text text text text text text text.

Indented, not bolded, italicized, sentence case. The text follows just after the period

Fifth-level heading. Text text text text text text text text text text text text text text text

text text

text text

text text

text text text text text text text text text text.

The author's name is inverted. Use initials

References

Centered, not bolded

Author, A. A. (Year of publication). Title of work: Capital letter also for subtitle. Location:

Publisher.

Longer works such as books, journals are italicized, sentence case is used

Author, A. A., & Author, B. B. (Date of publication). Title of article. Title of Online Periodical, volume number(issue number if available). Retrieved from <http://www.someaddress.com/url/>

Titles of periodicals are italicized, title case is used

Use 'Retrieved from' for online sources

Parts of works such as articles or chapters are not italicized, sentence case is used